Overview

To assist the condo sector with accessing and filling out the condo forms which can be found on the Condominium Authority of Ontario (CAO) website, the CAO has developed this helpful guide. As the condo forms can be accessed through two separate links, either as a fillable form or as a non-fillable form, the guide is broken down into two different sections being:

1. Instructions for filling out and printing a fillable form.
2. Instruction for filling out and printing a non-fillable form.

Important: For the best experience when accessing forms, the CAO recommends using the browser Google Chrome. You can access the link to download and install Google Chrome by clicking here.

1. Instructions for filling out and printing a fillable form:

Step 1: Click on the fillable form link. Once it has opened in your internet browser, go ahead and fill out the form.

Proxy Form (mandatory)	-
This form must be used by owners or mortgagees if they wish to be represented by proxy at a meeting of owners, including for the purposes of voting on any matters at the meeting. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Proxy Form (mandatory) Fillable</li> <li>• Proxy Form (mandatory) Non Fillable</li> </ul>

Click on the fillable form link.

Then click on the “Save” button located at the bottom of the form.

Instruction to person filling out the form: If you set out any names above, your proxy may only vote for the named individuals and only if, at the time of the vote, they are candidates. If you list more names than positions available on the board of directors, your proxy will vote in the order set out above up to the number of positions available. The numbers in the left hand column indicate the order in which you want the proxy to vote. These numbers indicate your priority. Note that if a director's position on the board is a position for which only owner-occupied units may vote for under s. 51 (6) of the Condominium Act, 1998, then only those owners may vote with respect to the election of a substitute.

Save Form
